 RE: NEW CLERKNET FEATURE
 Case Watch Notification Module

Want to know the progress of a case without taking the time to research the status? ClerkNet now offers a "case watch" feature. Here's how it works: The user simply logs in to ClerkNet, opens the case of interest and clicks a "subscribe" button one time to receive notification of filings. This will register your interest in the case, and you will receive an email each time a document is filed in that case with a link to take you to the document.

It is expected that both Counsels for the Plaintiff and Defendant will find this feature extremely helpful. Because ClerkNet is not limited to the attorney of record, it is expected that this case watch feature will also serve attorneys who do not represent the parties, but have an interest in the progress of a case. The next enhancement scheduled to be delivered will allow attorneys of record to view confidential matters.

Close to 600 attorneys now use ClerkNet. For more information about ClerkNet or the new notification feature, go to www.SarasotaClerk.com or contact the Clerk of the Circuit Court at clerknet@scgov.net.
